

Consent for Photography

You are being asked for your consent to one or more of the following:

- have your photograph taken;
- have your artwork photographed.

You may refuse to give your consent. This will not affect your treatment, employment, and/or affiliation with Toronto School of Art in any way.

I, (print name) _____ give permission to Toronto School of Art or any other persons authorized by Toronto School of Art to take and produce photographs and any other visual reproductions of myself and/or my artwork, to take or collect and use such photographs, for possible use:

- in Toronto School of Art materials such as videos, publications, posters, website, eblasts; eLearning and other educational materials, and
- by external media such as newspapers, and/or TV news programs.
 - My name may be used.
 - My name may not be used.

I understand that pictures, images and recordings used on the web or by news media reside in the public domain and as such Toronto School of Art shall not be held responsible for such use. I understand that this image or information may be maintained and used in the Toronto School of Art Archives, as well as in media archives, and I consent to such use. I understand that educational materials may be shared with other organizations. I further agree that Toronto School of Art may use, publish, and otherwise deal with the images or information as they see fit.
